

INTERNATIONAL AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

PRESIDENT'S SCHOLARSHIP

Established to encourage high academic achievement within the student body, the President's Scholarship is available to students with educationally or economically disadvantaged backgrounds. The President selects recipients from application's personal interview addressing their background, hardships, achievements and financial need.

Eligibility Requirements

1. Application for President's Scholarship: This must be filed with an Application for Admissions and include all admissions documentation. Along with the standard and required admissions documents, applicant must also include the additional items.
2. Admissions to the University: Applicant must have been accepted for admission to the University for a Degree Program and have submitted all required scholarship application forms and requested materials and meet the minimum admissions and other requirements specified in the University.
3. Personal Statement: Include a statement about your personal or academic background and any economic hardships you have endured.
4. Letters of Recommendation: Two letters of recommendation are required. The most meaningful evaluations come from people who can attest to your academic or professional ability to succeed. If letter is in a foreign language, an English translation is required.

An academic recommendation is from a former professor or academic professional who can attest to your ability to succeed academically. A professional recommendation is from a colleague who can attest to your professional experience or managerial performance. One of each is recommended however two of one type is acceptable.

5. Accomplishments: Provide copies of any recognitions, awards and honors that you have received.

Maintaining the Scholarship

Scholarship recipients must maintain the minimum a cumulative grade point average of 2.7 for undergraduate students and 3.0 for graduate students. If the student falls below respective cumulative grade point average, student forfeits the scholarship permanently and is ineligible for re-application.
